Tsirk Dobranotch is a musical circus ensemble consisting of three interdisciplinary artists and the legendary Klezmer band Dobranotch – a group with nearly 30 years of history, renowned worldwide for their energetic and authentic performances.

The ensemble blends traditional circus with the traditions of Klezmer, Yiddish theatre, and humor. All members have a migration background and, through their performance, tell stories of movement, exile, cultural roots, and human connection.

The entire show is built on live Klezmer music and combines music, movement, and clown-like storytelling. The audience experiences poetic and humorous scenes, traditional Yiddish melodies, dance, mime, and impressive aerial acrobatics.

This Klezmer circus project is one of the artistic highlights of Dobranotch's long career – a colorful, vibrant celebration of music, diversity, and the joy of life.
